CHESTER THEATRE COMPANY PRESENTS STEPHEN MASSICOTTE'S
MARY'S WEDDING JULY 26-AUGUST 5

Director Colette Robert returns to direct the two hander at the Town Hall Theatre

Chester, MA – Chester Theatre Company (CTC) is proud to present Stephen Massicotte's two-actor, three-character play, Mary's Wedding, in the historic Chester Town Hall, 15 Middlefield Road in Chester, MA, from July 26 through August 5, 2018.

When Mary and Charlie find themselves sheltering from a storm in the same barn, they don't yet realize their chance meeting will change their young lives. Time bends in this tale of a great love told in the shadow of the Great War.

"Mary's Wedding is about two people who bravely love each other despite war, distance, and different backgrounds," said Director Colette Robert, who also directed 2016's production of Katori Hall's The Mountaintop for CTC. "With everything currently happening in the country and the world, a story about trying to find light and love and joy during dark, uncertain times is something that I can connect to right now, in this moment."

The artistic team for Mary's Wedding includes:

Colette Robert (Director) is a Los Angeles native currently based in New York. Recent directing credits include: Big Love (Sarah Lawrence College), How My Grandparents Fell in Love (EST, NYT Critic's Pick), What Every Girl Should Know (NYU), Hottentotted (The Tank), The Mountaintop (Chester Theatre Company), Icons/Idols (Ice Factory), and When Last We Flew (Diversionary Theatre and FringeNYC, GLAAD Media Award). As a playwright, her play The Harriet Holland Social Club Presents The 84th Annual Star-Burst Cotillion in the Grand Ballroom of the Renaissance Hotel was developed with Fuller Road, New Georges, and Mabou Mines. Colette is a member of Ensemble Studio Theatre, a co-facilitator of the New Georges Jam, and The Drama League's 2018 Beatrice Terry Director in Residence. Alumnus of the Mabou Mines Resident Artist Program,
