The seating chart displays two main sections of seats. The left section has 7 columns and 10 rows (A-J). The right section has 7 columns and 10 rows (A-J). The legend indicates that green circles represent 'ALL' ($0-53) seats, and grey circles represent 'Unavailable' seats. In the left section, rows A, B, F, and G are fully green. Rows C and H have grey seats in the first two columns. Row E has a grey seat in the seventh column. In the right section, rows A, B, F, and G are fully green. Rows C and H have grey seats in the first two columns. Row E has a grey seat in the first column. A zoomed-in view of a section of the chart is shown in the bottom right, along with a '+' button.

- Then click on the Select Seats from Map button. Remember to add the $0 package tickets, not the full price tickets. (NOTE: the system will not let you leave a single empty seat in a row.) Add your seats to your cart.
- If you wish to select more tickets, hit the Continue Shopping button and repeat the process. Otherwise, you can check out.
